Questions

(Q) If I don't feel comfortable using an E ticket, can I request traditional paper tickets instead?

(A) Most online air travel providers will be able to issue you a paper ticket if you prefer that over an E Ticket. The only thing is that you will probably have to pay shipping charges on the delivery of your paper tickets.

(Q) Can I purchase an airline ticket online for travel tickets that depart in two days?

(A) Many of the online ticket sellers have limitations on selling tickets for travel in fewer than 4 days. In some cases they don't sell them at all, while others will have a special way of handling last minute travel orders. Some sites have last minute specials as well.

(Q) Should I confirm my air travel arrangement that I made online?

(A) Yes, you should always confirm your air travel reservations with the air carrier a couple of days after you made them, and again a couple of days prior to departure.
